

What is not acceptable?

1. Hate speech

- Content targeting a person or group of people based on their protected characteristic(s). Credible threats or direct attacks on an individual or group.

2. Violent and graphic content

- Content that glorifies violence or celebrates the suffering or humiliation of a person or people will be removed.
- Threats that could lead to death (and other forms of high-severity violence) targeting people or places.
- Threats that lead to serious injury (mid-severity violence) towards private individuals, unnamed specified persons, minor public figures, high-risk persons, or high-risk groups.
- Any content containing statements of intent, calls for action, conditional or aspirational statements or advocating for violence due to voting, voter registration or the administration of the outcome of an election
- Content that puts LGBTQI+ people at risk by revealing their sexual identity against their will or without permission
- Content that puts unveiled women at risk by revealing their images without veil against their will or without permission
- Violent threats against law enforcement officers
- Violent threats against people accused of a crime.
- Misinformation and unverifiable rumours that contribute to the risk of violence or physical harm
- Statements of intent, advocacy, calls to action, aspirational or conditional statements to bring weapons to any event or location. If the intent is not explicit, we may rely on other context or information from independent sources to make our determination.
- Coded statements where violence or harm is not clearly articulated, but the threat is veiled or implicit

3. Adult nudity and sexual activity

- Depictions of nudity or sexual activity or other sexually suggestive content.

4. Cruel and insensitive

- We do not allow depictions of cruel and insensitive content.

5. Bullying and harassment

- Including making threats to releasing personally identifiable information, to sending threatening messages and making unwanted malicious contact.

6. Spam

If you see something that doesn't follow the Community Standards, please contact us:

philathropy@stjohnscollege.edu.au