

ST JOHN'S COLLEGE

within the University of Sydney

St John's College is one of the historic residential colleges within the University of Sydney. Combining a distinguished heritage and charming building with a stimulating intellectual environment, St John's College offers a unique opportunity to achieve your academic and personal potential. Our students enjoy a truly memorable student experience surrounded by a safe, supportive student community.

More than a room

Our community nurtures a strong sense of belonging while offering a rich culture of academic, arts, music, and sporting pursuits. Whether you join as a Residential or Affiliate (non-residential) student, you will build friendships that last a lifetime and become part of a vibrant and supportive network.

Residential students live alongside senior student leaders who are available around the clock, with meals and day-to-day living taken care of so you can focus on your studies and fully experience university life. Affiliate students enjoy access to the same inclusive community, events, and support while living off-site, giving you flexibility alongside connection.

Fees
